

DREAMS

HANNAH WALTERS Violin

LILIAN LIU Piano

Wednesday 13 February

5.15 – 6.00 pm. Free Series.

Hannah and Lilian play music reflecting youth's playfulness. Dreams, hopes and ideas spill over in joyful expression in music and poetry filled with imagination and adventure.

Is youth the best time of our lives?

HANNAH

LILIAN

TIMOTHY

MYSTERIES

TIMMOTHY OBORNE Cello

Wednesday 20 February

5.15 – 6.00 pm. Free Series.

Timothy introduces the music of Bach for unaccompanied cello in a reflection on the Five Sorrowful Mysteries of Christ. Contemporary images and silences open up a host of questions and thoughts whilst the music engages the performer and listener in an exploration of a myriad of colours and harmonic possibilities.

*Matthew Demetriou
Winner – 'Geelong Advertiser'
Music Competition 2007*

MOODS

Matthew Demetriou Piano

Wednesday 27 February

5.15 – 6.00 p.m. Free Series.

Matthew plays Mozart and Beethoven, no strangers to changing moods as they dealt with princes and patrons, critics and creditors, family, friends and a fickle society. Their letters are filled with elation and humour one day, anger and anxiety the next. Youthful minds will understand

JOIE DE VIVRE

CHLOE LANE Violin

REECE JOHNSON Voice

Wednesday 5 March

5.15 – 6.00 pm. Free Series.

Chloe and Reece bring music celebrating the energy and passion of youth. Life is brimming with possibilities! This is the time to take on new and exciting challenges, to bring hopes and plans to reality and to create a special place in life.

Time to find Joie de Vivre!

CHLOE

REECE